Groups that Act as Fiscal Sponsors

Updated February 2022

The following is a working list of organizations that offer fiscal sponsorship services. Please check the websites for the most up to date information.

A.J. Muste Memorial Institute

Contact: Heidi Boghosian
heidi@ajmuste.org
(212) 533-4335

Through sponsorships, the Institute enables organizations to receive tax-deductible contributions for educational work related to peace and justice. This is particularly helpful to organizations that don’t have the time, staff or financial resources to pursue and maintain tax-exempt status.

Alliance for Global Justice

https://afgj.org/sponsored-projects/fiscally-sponsored-projects

Contact: Elane Spivak-Rodriguez
fiscalsponsorship@afgj.org
(202) 540-8336

The Alliance for Global Justice is a tax-exempt non-profit under section 501(c)(3) of the IRS Code. As such, donations to projects of the AFGJ are fully tax-deductible on the donor’s federal income tax. For an Administrative Fee of 7%-8% for check and online donations respectively, the Alliance for Global Justice offers fiscal sponsorship for grassroots non-profits which agree with their Vision and Mission Statements but do not have their own 501(c)(3) status, thus making donations to those projects tax-deductible to the donor as well. Please note that AGJ does not provide fundraising assistance other than advice and is not a grant making institution.

Citizen Action Program

Contact: Jessica Watson
jwatson@osiny.org
(212) 256-4288

The Open Space Institute's Citizen Action program fosters the growth and success of community-based organizations focused on environmental causes. Offering a range of technical and professional support and services, Citizen Action mobilizes newly-formed... nonprofits to achieve their mission and meet their organizational goals.

Now in its fourth decade, Citizen Action has mentored, trained and launched nearly 150 grassroots startups in New York City and beyond. With a focus on open space access, outdoors recreation and environmental education, groups under Citizen Action all work in some way to protect the environment. Participants range from community gardens and local land trusts, to environmental educators and promoters of nature-based arts and activities. Many groups have gone on to become independent non-profits.

Fiscal Sponsor Directory

www.fiscalsponsordirectory.org

Fiscalsponsordirectory.org is a tool created by the San Francisco Study Center to help connect community projects with fiscal sponsors. The information about the fiscal sponsors in this online directory is self-reported by each fiscal sponsor in response to a questionnaire. The directory currently lists more than 300 sponsors nationally.

FJC: A Foundation of Philanthropic Funds

Contact: Laura Hoffman

Hoffman@fjc.org

(212) 714-0001

FJC incubates nonprofit organizations or projects under their 501(c)(3) umbrella. They collect tax-deductible contributions and disburse grants and vendor payments as needed. A detailed brochure is available on their website.

Fund for the City of New York Partner Project Program

https://www.fcny.org/fcny/core/ip/

Contact: Lisette Nieves

Inieves@fcny.org

The Fund's Partner Project Program provides financial management services, including monthly expense and revenue reports and financial reports for funders and audits. It also provides insurance coverage and a comprehensive array of employee benefits. Being in the incubator program gives you access to a chief financial officer, comptroller, auditor, financial manager, payroll clerk, accounts payable department, human resources experts, lawyer and nonprofit coaches.
Fractured Atlas
https://www.fracturedatlas.org/fiscal-sponsorship
(888) 692-7878
Fractured Atlas is a national organization which helps individual artists and arts organizations at every level of the cultural ecosystem, in every creative medium by providing fundraising tools, educational resources, and personalized support. Through fiscal sponsorship, you can leverage some of the benefits of Fractured Atlas’s tax-exempt status to access discounted space, solicit tax-deductible donations, and apply for funding from corporations and foundations.

Interreligious Foundation for Community Organization
https://ifconews.org/our-work/fiscal-sponsorship/
Contact: fiscalsponsor@ifconews.org
(212) 926-5757
The Interreligious Foundation for Community Organization (IFCO) is an interfaith organization designed to assist oppressed people in the fight for social justice and self-determination. As part of their mission they have served as fiscal sponsor for a variety of progressive grassroots projects. Fiscal Sponsorship at IFCO allows domestic and international groups committed to social justice work to use their 501c3 tax-exempt status to seek grants, hold fundraisers and solicit tax-deductible gifts.

NEO Philanthropy
www.neophilanthropy.org/fiscal-sponsorship/
Contact: https://neophilanthropy.org/contact/
(212) 378-2800
As a fiscal sponsor, NEO acts as an umbrella organization for an individual or project’s charitable work, and accepts and administers funds on its behalf. Fiscal sponsorship at NEO gives groups a non-profit “home” and allows them to focus on their programmatic work while NEO manages the financial, HR and legal elements, giving the projects the room they need to make a significant impact on the world.

Philanthropy New York
https://philanthropynewyork.org/fiscal-sponsorship
Contact: Angela Romualdez
aromualdez@philanthropynewyork.org
Fiscal sponsorship directly furthers PNY’s mission of encouraging and supporting effective, efficient philanthropic investment. For more than a decade, they have provided comprehensive fiscal sponsorship services to their members and they have the infrastructure and expertise to help you take your philanthropic vision from idea to reality.
SocialGood Fund

https://www.socialgoodfund.org/fiscal-sponsorship/about-our-sponsorship/

SocialGood works to create and establish positive influences for individuals, communities, and the environment. Their goal is to sponsor and develop projects that will help positively impact and develop local communities into healthier and happier places to live, work, and be.

Tides Center

https://www.tides.org/fiscal-sponsorship-at-tides/

(212) 509-1049

Tides Center is a 501(c)(3) public charity organization that offers fiscal sponsorship to 160+ projects. As a fiscal sponsor, Tides provides fiduciary oversight, financial management, and other administrative services to help build the capacity of charitable projects.
